Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We gather together today in the presence of God and neighbor to worship God and to receive the Lord in the Eucharist. In today's Gospel we hear Jesus tell us that those who exalt themselves will be humbled and that those who humble themselves will be exalted. Our presence here testifies that we are humbled before God, acknowledging that ultimately we are dependent upon God for all that we have and all that we achieve. Let us take this opportunity to thank God for all the blessings we have received.

Grateful Living: The Joy of Stewardship

The Challenges, pressures, and many other things on our daily schedules sometimes prevent us from taking time to reflect on our spirituality, our faith life. Small faith-sharing groups give us the time, the space, and the direction to reflect on our relationship with God and others; to reflect on how through our time, talent and treasure, we can have an incredible impact in the lives of others and experience a life of purpose and meaning. Our parish is participating in Grateful Living: The Joy of Stewardship. I will be sharing more information in the coming weeks, the process of forming a committee for this mission has begun. When I say “Come walk with me” I hope you say “Yes”. Vicki Duenke

THANK YOU! – Thank you, Annette and Barb, for cleaning the church, the kitchen and the hall. Thank you to all those too numerous to mention individually that brought food, stayed to set up, serve and clean up before during and after the Funeral Mass and Luncheon for Lawrence Hambach. The family said repeatedly to me how thankful they were for all you did for them and for Lawrence. Without you I wouldn't be able to do what I do and we would never be able to serve our loved ones, their families and this community. GOD BLESS YOU ALL!

MASS SCHEDULE FOR MAJOR FEASTS & SOLEMNITIES FOR THE REMAINDER OF THIS YEAR – see the bulletin boards in the church lobby and parish hall
