Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our readings today are truly frightening, for they look ahead to the end of the world and the second coming of our Lord. Everything that the human race has achieved will come crashing down. Natural disasters and violent conflicts will erupt. The faithful will be persecuted, but will be vindicated in the end. While evildoers will be punished in the last days, the faithful will not be harmed. May this give us confidence as we look forward to an uncertain future.

Grateful Living: The Joy of Stewardship: Our Baptism calls us to deepen our relationship with Christ and with all in God's family. Our parish is joining others throughout the diocese to grow together in grateful living, in holiness, in fullness of life by participating in small faith-sharing groups. Watch for more announcements about Grateful Living, and when invited to join, say "Yes!"..... Vicki Duenke

CATHOLIC STEWARDSHIP APPEAL

The Eucharist is the source of our Catholic Stewardship Appeal. Eucharist means “thanksgiving,” and the CSA is an opportunity for us to thank God for all He has given us, particularly the gift of His Son. Both remind us that followers of Jesus are to be bread broken for the life of the world. Through the CSA, we make known the Kingdom of God by helping each other to live our faith and share our Gospel belief. From honoring the dignity of each life, to teaching people about our faith, to sharing our resources with those who are alone or in need, our gifts to the CSA and the ministries these gifts support are our grateful offerings to God.

The Catholic Stewardship Appeal allows each of us to be partners with Pope Francis and Bishop McKnight in carrying out the soul-saving mission of the Church. We are blessed to be able to give sacrificially in thanks to God while helping to support Catholic outreach to people in need, in crisis or without a church community. All gifts to the CSA, great and small, help to make God’s kingdom known on this earth.

“...to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the Body of Christ...”
Ephesians 4:12
