Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

As days grow shorter, leaves fall from trees, and the last of the year's crops are harvested, the Church calls to mind those who have died and of Jesus' promise of eternal life. Earlier this week we honored the saints on All Saints Day and remembered our beloved dead on All Souls Day. Today we hear Jesus affirm the resurrection of the dead when faced with a group of religious authorities who refuse to accept it. May our faith in Jesus, who is the resurrection and the life, give us hope during these dark days.

Grateful Living: The Joy of Stewardship: more information is forthcoming, in the meantime, please pray for Vicki Duenke and the success of the program. Thank you.

Question of the week: To what must I die in order to fully live in the way God calls me?

CATHOLIC STEWARDSHIP APPEAL

Our annual Catholic Stewardship Appeal is beginning in our parish. All registered households will receive an invitation and information from Bishop McKnight regarding this year's CSA. This campaign funds vital services to all of the parishes and schools of the diocese and to those in need in the larger community.

Thanks to our Catholic Stewardship Appeal, we enjoy access to sacraments and the service of priests and deacons. The annual appeal also funds teacher formation, ministry to youth, efforts in support of family and pro-life, and care for the poor and marginalized. You can ensure that this continues by making a pledge to this year's Catholic Stewardship Appeal. Your donation, regardless of size, makes a difference.

The Catholic Stewardship Appeal depends on the contributions of faithful Catholics across the diocese to support many programs and services vital to our parishes' schools, and those in need in our communities. Consider the many blessings God has bestowed upon you and show your gratitude by making a pledge to this year's campaign. Please be generous.

We thank all who have given generously to the annual Catholic Stewardship Appeal. As we look at our lives and the many blessings God has given us, let us give a portion to the CSA as a way of saying thank you to the Lord. Through the CSA, we make known the Kingdom of God by helping each other to live our faith and share our Gospel belief. Our gifts to the CSA and ministries it supports are our grateful offerings to God.

"...to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the Body of Christ..." Ephesians 4:12
