Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's first reading, we hear God tell Isaiah, "my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples." We are gathered here today in a house of prayer, and so we welcome all people who have come here today to join together to pray to God in praise, in petition, and in thanksgiving. Let us lift up our voices in prayer to our God.

NEW YOUTH MINISTRY: On Sunday August 27 there will be the first meeting of the Youth Ministry following mass at 11:30 a.m. at Immaculate Conception in the school basement. The meeting will last approximately one hour and will consist of mostly deciding officers and activities to do as a group. This is open to St Patrick's youth from 8th through 12th grade and anyone in college who has already been confirmed. The group activities will focus on faith, fun, food and service to others. If you have any questions, please contact Steve Williams at 573-975-7494.

For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable. Just as you once disobeyed God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now disobeyed in order that, by virtue of the mercy shown to you, they too may [now] receive mercy. For God delivered all to disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

Romans 11:29-32

Through the grace and mercy of God, he is leading us to heaven to spend eternity with him. We are called to be strong in faith and live in love and gratefulness to him, allowing him to transform us into saints.

Bishop McKnight's August prayer intention for our Local Church

For students, parents and teachers as another school year begins; may our Catholic community provide the proper environment and resources for our young people to thrive and excel in their formation as disciples of Christ, and sons and daughters of our Catholic Church. We pray to the Lord.
