Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

After something terrible happens in our lives, we may conclude that God doesn't care, that God has abandoned us, or that there is no God. This is natural, for we cannot see our world as God sees our world. Isaiah tries to impress upon his listeners that God's thoughts and actions are so far above our own that we will never understand them. As Christians, we believe that God so loves us that God sent the Son, who suffered and died to save us. We trust that no matter what, God is with us. May we be reassured by that truth as we gather today in God's name.

Seek the Lord while he may be found,
call upon him while he is near.

Isaiah 55:6

Time is one of the many gifts that come from the Lord.
When we prioritize this gift of time by turning towards God in charity and mercy for others, we grow as disciples deepening our relationship with God, our families and our community.
