Thirty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today we are given the chance of a lifetime: a preview of what we will face at the end of time, straight from the lips of the One who will come in glory on that day. This is Christ the King, who rules over God's creation. In today's Gospel, Jesus confides to his disciples how he will pass judgment on us all. Keep in mind that it's never too late. Let us take heed so that we may do what Jesus expects from us. Then one day may we inherit the kingdom prepared for us from the foundation of the world.

Grateful Living Week 12: Members of our parish meeting in small groups are experiencing Grateful Living: The Joy of Stewardship from Renew International. This week's session, which reminds us that disciples of Christ will often find themselves at odds with secular values, includes this passage:

“As a result of our faith in Jesus Christ, we may be called to walk away from a friendship, challenge an unjust or unethical situation at work, or take a stand in our local community. Knowing the consequences of faithful discipleship, we must rely on the Holy Spirit and remain strong.”

Where can you turn for help in upholding your Christian values when they conflict with the values of your kinfolks, friends, community, or the world at large?
