Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

We come together today, as we do each Sunday, to praise and thank God and to celebrate the Eucharist as Jesus called us to do. We do all this in a spirit of humility, aware that all that we are and all that we have comes ultimately from God and that the Eucharist is Christ's own Body and Blood, which he offered to us so that we could have eternal life. Today's Gospel reminds us that it is proper to humble ourselves before the Lord, for we are called to serve, not to be served.

Grateful Living Week 9: Members of our parish meeting in small groups are experiencing Grateful Living: The Joy of Stewardship from Renew International. This week's session, which reminds us that God entrusted the earth and everything in it to our care, includes this passage:

“The fruits of the earth, creatures of the sea, beasts of the field, have been placed in our care. We can use them to sustain and enrich human life, but we are also called to protect and nurture them for their own sake as well as for ours.”

How do you exercise your commission from God to care for his creation? What more can you do?

Stewardship Material: Please pick up your packet and return forms by November 19th.

Youth Ministry Gathering: We are meeting today at Immaculate Conception following the 10:00am Mass.

Monthly Calendar Correction: Father Ernest will celebrate Mass at St Patrick on Thanksgiving Day at 8:30am.

OPEN HOUSE: We will have an Open House at the Parish House Sunday November 12th following Mass. Please come and tour the house and see all the improvements that have been made.

For Thanksgiving this year, we are collecting non-perishable food items and person hygiene items for the Jonesburg Blessing Box near the City Hall. Please bring these items to church no later than Thanksgiving Day. More in future bulletins.

The Four Pillars of Stewardship Hospitality - Prayer - Formation - Service

For the past 4 months, Fr. Stephen Jones, Director of Stewardship, has been discussing the Four Pillars of Stewardship. This series is designed to help us deepen our understanding of the spirituality of stewardship as we each prayerfully discern our gifts and how we will actively participate in the life of our parish communities and make our outward commitment the weekend of October 21-22 during the Catholic Stewardship Renewal.
