As a church community here at St Patrick's, we want to know, love, and serve Jesus in our efforts in: Christian formation/faith development; worship; social services; and stewardship of resources.

Fifth Sunday in Lent

As we draw close to Holy Week, we hear Jesus talk about his approaching death. Yet his message to his disciples is not so much about his death as it is about eternal life. As Christians, we know that as difficult as death is, our true focus, our true hope is in eternal life, trusting that our Lord is our source of eternal salvation. During this final week before Holy Week, let us keep in mind that just as our Lenten Journey will not end with Good Friday, but with Easter, so too does our own life's journey end not in death but in new life.

A HUGE Thank you to all the people who were at Mass last Sunday and heard my appeal for money for the "Basic Needs" program for our kids at Jonesburg! I was hoping for maybe a couple hundred dollars so I could shop for them this week. Can you imagine my surprise when I stood out in front of church and came home with $1,441.00!!! I won't have to "beg" the rest of the school year and will have some left over to start next year. Thank you so much--your generosity overwhelms me! Nancy Cobb.

St. Patrick's Day- Pancake Breakfast is today! Thank you, Confirmation Class, for a delicious meal. And thank you to all who donated to the Montgomery County Senior Center. Let's continue to support and pray for our candidates.

HOLY WEEK Sign-up sheets are in the Parish Hall. Please prayerfully consider participating in the Holy Week services with Immaculately Conception.

But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord. I will place my law within them and write it upon their hearts; I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Jeremiah 31:33

As we approach the close of this Lenten season, let us each remember what is written on our hearts and live as faithful disciples of Christ through the sacraments, prayer and offering sacrifices to the Lord.
