Immaculate Conception Parish Mission

To proclaim the good news of the Gospel; to build community among the parishioners that we may journey in our faith together, giving witness to love and unity; to serve the needs of others in whatever form they may exit in our midst and to celebrate the realities of our faith together.

St. Patrick Parish Mission

As a church community here at St. Patrick, we want to know, love and serve Jesus in our efforts in: Christian formation/faith development; worship; social services; and stewardship of resources.

See!
I will not forget you, I have carved you on the palm of my hand.
Isaiah 49:15

Welcome everyone to Eucharistic Adoration

On the 3rd Wednesday of each month at St. Patrick from 9:00 AM to 7:00 PM.

Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves.

PHILIPPIANS 2:3-4

Will You Work in God's Vineyard?

ANN M. GARRIDO

Most parents can resonate with today's gospel. Who hasn't had a child promise to do their chores and then neglect to do them? Or a child who threw a fit when asked to help but then pitched in after all?

Jesus' parables intend to give clues about a mystery he called the kingdom of God—a revelation about what the world will look like when God's dreams for it are realized. We get a good hint that this parable is meant to be about the kingdom of God because it speaks of a vineyard, and Jesus often compared God's kingdom to a vineyard. Vineyards throughout the ancient world were associated with joy and abundance, but they also required much tending. They needed workers, and that is what God has called us to be for the kingdom.

Jesus observed that those who professed to support God's coming kingdom often seemed to do little to help bring it about whereas those who historically had been viewed as resistant to God's ways were more receptive to John the Baptist's preaching—and, we can imagine, Jesus' message as well. They were the ones who proved in the end more willing to lend a hand.

The vineyard of which Jesus spoke still requires workers. It still requires people willing to collaborate with God in gathering the abundant harvest that will mark a season of great joy. We can imagine that, like any parent, God's greatest delight would be to have children who say "yes" and then follow through on their word! ●

Dear Padre,

Why must I choose practicing Catholics as my baby's godparents?

The Church is clear about the qualifications of godparents: at least sixteen years old; leading lives of faith; confirmed and having already received Communion, among others. (See the Code of Canon Law, 872–874.) “Godparent” isn’t simply an honorary title we bestow on someone.

It’s an important role in a child’s faith life. Parents and godparents introduce us to Jesus and teach us to pray. We talk to Jesus on our own and learn more about him through Scripture. Our parents take us to church. We watch their example and that of our godparents. It is the gradual process of being introduced to Jesus by those who know him that leads us to trust him and have faith in him. At baptism, a godparent lights a candle from the Easter candle and holds it for the child as the presider says, “Receive the light of Christ.” That is how faith comes to us: a gift from God, but through other people. Parents and godparents must have the bright flame of faith in their own hearts if they hope to pass it to the child.

It is permitted to have only one godparent, fulfilling the requirements previously mentioned, and a special “witness” who is a person of faith but is not Catholic. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV
Jesus taught us that in discerning how to help our neighbor, we must imitate the example of the Good Samaritan, who selflessly gave of his time and resources to someone whom he had never previously met.... When we help those in need, especially those who cannot repay us, we become the Lord’s instruments.

Pillar of Prayer

- Through participation in Mass we learn to recognize, receive and share God’s grace and gifts in love of God and neighbor.
- Through prayer, Christian stewards grow closer to God-strengthening their relationship and growing in spirituality.
- Intentional prayer of sacrificial giving of one’s first fruits.

Ask yourself:

When I stand before God and He asks, “What have you done with the gifts I have given you?” How will I respond?

Lord how would you like me to become more involved in the life of the Church?

Lord, why did You place me where I am today? What do You want me to do with the gifts You have given me?

Come, Holy Spirit, Come!
How can you serve? Some ideas but not all inclusive.

October 2nd: No School

October 30th: Trivia Night - we moved it up a week, mark your calendars!

Happy fall y'all! We are FALLING in LOVE with school. Zoie Park, a 3rd grader, loves that she gets to read independently between subjects in class. While her teacher, Mrs. Cristal Castillo loves getting to spend time with God at adoration and the freedom to talk about Jesus! She also loves the small classes, she can get to know her students' needs and personalities. Kindergarten-er Audrey loves that she gets to use her creativity to color.

Grandparents day was such a blast! We hope all the GGs and Pop Pops had just as much fun as we did. Thank you to all those who helped make the day so special especially Geri and Lawrence Park and parents who helped with lunch and desserts.

The Harvest Picnic was a great day, thank you so much for all of those who took part in putting the day together and helping out.

We still have openings for Pre-School and Early Learning.

The Home and School welcomes you all to join the fun on October30th this year for Trivia from Around the World! We hope to make this event a success! We are in NEED of Live auction items. Things that have been donated in the past: *weekend getaways *handyman work *high-end adult beverages *concert/sporting event tickets. Thank you for all you do to help make our evening so much fun. We hope to see you there!
